

Proclamation

- WHEREAS, B's Bouquets, was established in 1989 by Patrick and Nancy Weibye and is located on a farm on Kettle Moraine Road in Hartford, Wisconsin, which Patrick and Nancy purchased from Nancy's parents in 1994; and
- WHEREAS, Patrick and Nancy grow flowers on approximately 7 acres and have two large greenhouses on the farm. The primary flowers which they grow are lilies, calla lilies, gladiolas, sunflowers, snapdragons, lisianthus and zinnias. In the fall, they grow a variety of flowers that can be dried for arrangements; and
- WHEREAS, Patrick and Nancy have been selling their flowers at the Brookfield Farmers' Market since it began 25 years ago; and
- WHEREAS, Patrick and Nancy work very hard and handle the ups and downs of the weather which is critical for growing flowers. Working with family and friends plus selling a product that brings smiles to the faces of people and color into their homes is what motivates them.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Steven V. Ponto, Mayor of the City of Brookfield, do hereby commend Patrick and Nancy Weibye for their dedication to growing beautiful flowers and their participation as a vendor in the Brookfield's Farmers' Market for 25 years.

Signed and sealed this 25th day of July,
in the year Two Thousand and Fifteen.

Steven V. Ponto, MAYOR
City of Brookfield
